

PURPOSE OF THE NUTRITION BASE

The Nutrition Base is a public database that all food businesses are required to register with in order to operate their business legitimately.

Anyone can look up a business in the Nutrition Base and see whether it has a nutrition letter to operate a food business. The Nutrition Base also includes another database which is closed to the public. Here authorities that perform check-ups, e.g. SKAT and the regional veterinary and food control authority, can register significant breaches of legislation etc.

The Nutrition Base provides a list, enabling much easier targeted and efficient checks to the benefit of the food sector and its customers.

MINI GUIDE FOR FOOD BUSINESSES

THE NUTRITION BASE

WHO IS INCLUDED

Everyone who runs a food business and has an annual turnover of more than DKK 50,000 must be registered in the Nutrition Base.

You are covered by this requirement if you:

- sell food directly to consumers, including catering
- sell food for consumption at or near the place of business (serving)
- sell food to other businesses for the purpose of resale or processing (wholesale), or
- work with transport, processing or conservation of food.

WHAT IS REQUIRED?

If you have not previously been registered in the Nutrition Base, you must either have completed an approved education programme or passed a nutrition test. You can read more about the registration requirements at www.virk.dk/naeringsbasen.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

An annual fee is charged for every nutrition letter listed in the Nutrition Base. Read more about paying for registration at www.virk.dk/naeringsbasen.

REGISTER YOUR BUSINESS!

It is your responsibility to ensure that your business is registered in the Nutrition Base. You can register your business and read more about the process at www.virk.dk/naeringsbasen.

You are not allowed to operate a food business until it has been registered in the Nutrition Base.

OUTSTANDING PAYMENT

If you do not pay the annual fee, your right to stay in the Nutrition Base will be revoked. You cannot continue operating your business until you pay the outstanding amount and register in the Nutrition Base again.

If you are deleted from the Nutrition Base, regardless of the reason, you are no longer permitted to operate a food business.

WHICH ADDRESS MUST BE REGISTERED?

You must register with the address of your place of business (production unit). Your place of business is the geographical address where you operate your business. It is important to update your registration in the Nutrition Base if you relocate.
